Dated, this the 8th day of October, 2007

These writ petitions are filed praying for an expeditious disposal of Ext.P1 applications filed by the respective petitioners. The Petitioners submit that the applications have been adjourned vide Ext.P2 on the ground that they had not offered ready vehicle. Making reference to the judgment of this Court in E.P.Alavikutty Vs. Regional Transport Authority and Others, reported in 2005 (1) K L J 205, the petitioners submit that there is no such mandatory requirement. This position canvassed by the petitioners is unassailable.

2. In view of the above decision, I dispose of these writ petitions directing that the 1st respondent shall consider Ext.P1 applications made by the petitioners and take a final decision in the matter as expeditiously as possible, at any rate, within six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of the judgment.

The petitioners shall produce a copy of this judgment before the respondents for compliance.

(ANTONY DOMINIC, JUDGE.)
